OFFICE OF THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.
6 MAR. 1939
Diary No. 2342
File No. RD 9(12)39

BEFORE THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE, C.& M.STATION, BANGALORE.

R.Dis. R.O.No. 9(12) of 1939.

Applicant:-D.B.Viswambhariah, aged about 35 years, Kunchitigar by caste, son of late Mr.D.Banumiah, residing at Banthepet, Mysore.

Application under Secs.372 and 382 of the Indian Succession Act (Act XXXIX of 1925).

1. Dharmaprakasha Rao Bahadur D.Banumiah, who was divided from his only brother D.Chowdayya, was a Philonthropist, Land owner and Merchant of extensive business dealings, residing and carrying on business at Mysore. He had invested large sums of money in securing shares in several concerns inside and outside the Mysore State. The investments have ultimately proved themselves to be speculative and unremunerative in some concerns and fruitful in some others.

2. He died at his residence at Mysore, the same being his ordinary place of residence at the time on 26th September 1932 leaving four of his undivided sons who are his sole legal representatives entitled to his ~~xxx~~ assets, the applicant being one among the said four.

3. The shares standing in the name of the deceased in some concerns have been either transferred to the names of these four surviving co-parceners of the deceased's family or permitted to be dealt with by them without the intervention of the Court. The items enumerated in the Schedule appended hereto yet remain in the name of the deceased. The applicant and his brothers are agreed that among them a certificate may be granted to the applicant in respect of the items appearing in the schedule hereunder. The other brothers have similarly filed applications for the grant of certificate in respect of other items, in accordance with their agreement.

4. Whether remunerative or not, the applicant has to enable himself to deal with his shares in the schedule items on obtaining a Succession Certificate in his name. Hence, this application for a Succession Certificate.

5. The mother of the applicants having died long before their father and their uncle being divided from his Brother the deceased and the applicant's other brothers having taken for their share other securities, the applicant is solely entitled to the grant of the certificate. No special notice is necessary to the uncle as he has sworn to an accompanying Affidavit disclaiming all interest.

6. The deceased left no Will and there has been no previous application for Probate, Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate in respect of the estate of the deceased. There is no impediment whatever to the grant of the Certificate applied for.

7. The applicant applied for the grant of Succession Certificate in respect of the scheduled scheduled items before the Sub Judge, Mysore, in Mis. 86 of 37-38 and the same though granted not being respected by the various Companies they being situate in British India, he is compelled to apply over again to the Political Agent in Mysore, being Mysoreans and residents of Mysore State.

Wherefore, the applicant prays that the Hon'ble Court may be pleased to grant the needful Certificate in his name.

Application in O.Dis.No.F.9(12) of 1939 under Sec.382 of the Indian Succession Act 1925.(Act No.XXXIX of 1925)

In the matter of the estate of Dharmaprakasha Rao Bahadur D.Banumiah, now deceased.

Petitioner:- D.B.Krishnappa.

OFFICE OF THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.
6 FEB. 1940
Diary No. 145-7
File No. 909 (12)/39

The Petitioner abovenamed states as follows:-

1. That in the accompanying Certificate granted to the petitioner, the description of the estate is stated as of "Dharmaprakasha Rao Bahadur D.Banumiah".

2. That this description was based on the style of description mentioned in the petition for the grant of the Certificate.

3. The Indian Wood Products Co.,Ltd.,Calcutta, who were asked on the strength of the Certificate to register the petitioner's name in respect of the 100 shares of the Company wrote to the petitioner's counsel that the deceased's full name "Doddiah Ramumiah" as appearing in their registers ought to be inserted under the authentication of the grantor to enable them to do the needful.

4. The petitioner's father was also known as "Doddiah Banumiah" and for the reasons contained in the accompanying Affidavit, it is just and expedient that in the preamble to the Certificate after the words "Dharmaprakasha Rao Bahadur D. Banumiah" the words "alias Doddiah Banumiah" be inserted before the words "now deceased" and the same duly authenticated.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF DHARMAPRAKASA D.BANUMIA. (Now deceased).

I, D.B. Krishnappa, son of Banumia, aged about 33 years, Merchant, residing in Yelwal Road, Mysore, do hereby solemnly affirm and state as follows:-

1. I applied in R.Dis.No.F.9 (12 of 1939) on the file of the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore, under Sec.382 of the Indian Succession Act 1925 to receive Dividends on and to negotiate or transfer certain shares held by my father Dharmaprakasa Rao Bahadur D.Banumia of the Indian Wood Products Co.,Ltd.,Calcutta and other Companies.

2. The Certificate was accordingly granted and is herewith filed as an enclosure.

3. The Company at Calcutta to which the Certificate was forwarded wrote back to state that the registered name of my father as appearing in their registers is Doddia Banumia and that to enable them to transfer the shares in my name the name as appearing in their registers may be inserted after the words "Dharmaprakasa Rao Bahadur D.Banumia" before the words "Now deceased" by stating "alias Doddia Banumia" duly authenticated by the grantor of the Certificate.

4. My father was also known as Doddia Banumia, Doddia being his father's name and I had in my original application merely given the first letter letter in the description of my father's name and describing him as "D.Banumia".

5. In view of the technical requirement of the Company, it is just and expedient that my father's description may be noted as "Doddia Banumiah" at the place stated as above in this Affidavit.
